

Love is the Most Excellent Way

Neill A. Burgess & Howard J. Prior

E A F#m B E

♩ = 96

R.H. L.H. R.H. L.H. R.H. L.H. R.H. L.H. R.H. L.H.

1. Love is the most
2. Love is the most

A6 A F#m B A E

ex-cel-lent way,
ex-cel-lent way,

with-out it we just
a mir-ror where we

ech-o and fade;
see Jes-us' face;

emp-ty and hol-low
keep-ing no re-cord

A6 A F#m B A E A Am

as a drum,
of the past,

in-sub-stan-tial as a
al-ways pa-tient and en

sha-dow in the sun;
dur-ing to the last;

with-out it there is
and love will al-ways

E/G# A F#m B A

no-thing to be gained;
hope and ne-ver fail,

for love is the most
for love is the most

ex-cel-lent way.
ex-cel-lent way.

C

3. I could talk in tongues of an - gels, move a moun - tain down to the sea. If I did it with - out love it

D C

D Bsus4 B Csus4 C F

would mean no - thing at all to me. 4. Love is the most

Bb6 Bb Gm C Bb F

ex - cel - lent way, un - chang - ing in a world of de - cay; when words and know - ledge

Bb6 Bb Gm C Bb F Bb Bbm

all are gone, onl - y faith and hope and love will car - ry on. So may love show in

F/A      Bb      Gm      C                      Bb                      Bb                      Bbm

all we do and say,      for love is the most      ex-cel-lent way,      So may love show in

F/A      Bb      Gm      C                      Bb                      F all we do and say,      for love is the most      ex-cel-lent way.

Bb                      Gm      C      F